Message from the President

Summer is almost over which means it's time for the FCAA meetings to start! It will be our first meeting in the new location of St. John's Church - address and room number below. It's important to park in Lot B behind the church, as that will be the only door open. Someone will be there to greet you. I'm excited for this location, with more room and good lighting. Hope everyone can come September 12th!

Jean Harshman

Meetings – remember, we'll be at our new location - a more spacious room than in the past:
 St. John's UCC, 1811 Lincoln Way E, Chambersburg, Parking Lot B.

The Alliance's September meeting will be held on Saturday September 12 from 1-3pm (12:30 social time) at St. John's UCC, 1811 Lincoln Way E, Chambersburg – Follow signs for Parking Lot B. The business meeting will begin at 1pm and the program will follow, featuring a program by Cathy Stone. Many of us remember Cathy as the beloved Executive Director of the Carlisle Arts Learning Center for many years. A studio art graduate of the York Academy of Arts, Cathy recently retired from CALC, but continues to teach there and run the Artful Aging program, which takes art experiences into residential care facilities. Cathy will stretch our imaginations with a few drawing games and challenges: we will play with line weight and exaggeration, draw blind, create abstractions and draw from life: remember, there are no mistakes in art! One of Cathy's favorite quotes is from Picasso: "Every child is an artist. The problem is how to remain an artist once he grows up."

The Alliance's October meeting will be held on Saturday October 10 from 1-3pm (12:30 social time) at St. John's UCC, 1811 Lincoln Way E, Chambersburg – Follow signs for Parking Lot B. The business meeting will begin at 1pm and the program will follow, featuring a demonstration in watercolor by Christopher Bohn of Lancaster. Chris attended the Tyler School of Art in Philadelphia, has exhibited with the York Art Association, received the Best Watercolor in Show award, and teaches watercolor and charcoal there. He recently completed a six-month mentorship with Mary Whyte and is a member of the Pennsylvania Watercolor Society. He paints portraits, figures, landscapes, and animals with an emphasis on observation and light.

Please note: An election for Officers and Board members was held at the May meeting. You will find the 2026-2027 list of Alliance officers, board members and committee chairs on page 2 of this newsletter. Feel free to contact any of these folks with questions!

Chambersburg's artists' co-op, The Foundry Art Market, located at 54 Lincoln Way West - just ½ block west of the Square - continues to welcome applications from new artists. Visit www.FoundryArtMarket.com and scroll down under Home, or better yet, stop by and meet a Foundry Artist. Many are members of the Art Alliance who enjoy the networking and collaborative aspects of Foundry membership – and having their work in a gallery with a growing audience.

Foundry Artist Challenge: Each year at AppleFest the Foundry hosts their Artist Challenge, where artists paint outside in the festival and donate their work for the chance to win a year's membership to the co-op. Read complete details here and sign up to participate on Saturday Oct.17 between 10am and 3pm: <https://www.foundryartmarket.com/artist-challenge-faqs>

Other locations: There are advantages to exhibiting your work at the hospital and the libraries. Many people will see it who may not be inclined to go to a gallery, so the art gets exposure to a wider audience. Not all the pieces have to be offered for sale and neither do they have to be produced in the last two or three years.

Grove Family Library: The Grove Family Library gallery has openings for January, July and August, and December of 2027. "If you have not yet exhibited at Grove, we hope you will consider doing so. There is no commission on sales, and you can sign up via email by contacting Carol Rinehart at crinehart@fclspa.org, or by calling the library, 717-264-9663, ext 1207."

Chambersburg's Coyle Library is open Mon.-Fri 9am-8:30pm & Sat. 9am-5pm, and exhibits there are now possible for 1 or 2 months in 2027. Lou Cowles, who organizes the exhibits in the 2nd floor gallery area, is looking for artists interested in displaying their work. It's a good space, with excellent lighting! Call Lou at 717-263-1054 or send her an email at lcowles@fclspa.org.

Chambersburg Hospital: Sharon Holoviyak organizes Alliance member art displays in the busy hallway of the Chambersburg Hospital for 2-month exhibits, working with Jean Harshman to hang them in this great location! Please contact Sharon at 717-658-6555 or skbh53@gmail.com to sign up for a 2-month show; the space requires approximately 20 works. No commission is taken, but a 20% donation to the Hospital Auxiliary is requested.

Fulton County Library, 227 N. 1st St., McConnellsburg, welcomes artists to display their work for month-long exhibits. Contact April Leese at 717-485-5327 or aleese@fclspa.org for more information.

Gems Online: This month's selection is various YouTube artists you can easily find. Try searching for Florent Farges, oil painting, Oliver Pyle, watercolor, Chris Breir, acrylic and Esther Frnchuk, abstract. These artists are very generous in the information they give, and you can learn a lot from any of them. Enjoy!

Check out the Alliance online! Danielle Riseley (danielleriseley@gmail.com) has redesigned, and will maintain, our website: www.franklincountyartalliance.org. Please contact her with suggestions and questions!

Floral Sculpture Workshops: Fridays September 11&18 6:30-8:30pm (at Sheila's studio) and October 17&24 1-3pm (at Nisei Gallery, 14370 Reckord Ave. Highfield-Cascade MD 21719) In this two-day workshop students will learn how to sculpt and paint their own beautiful floral air-dry clay sculpture. Please note: You must attend both dates to complete your sculpture :) Investment is $125. This includes both days.

Botanical Gel Printing: Friday, September 25 6:30-8:30. Botanical Gel Printing is fun, messy, and wonderfully colorful. The process involves rolling paint onto the plate, laying your botanicals/stencils on top, then laying down a paper, pressing it down, and then peeling it off for the grand reveal! You can do this in multiple layers, add textures to your designs, etc. The possibilities are endless. This class is beginner friendly and open to anyone who enjoys art and experimentation. All supplies will be provided. We will be printing on paper that you can then frame or use as collage paper. Cost is $35.

Expressive Florals: Friday, October 23, 6:30-8:30pm We will start by creating a free-flowing, abstract background. Then we will take inspiration from floral arrangements and/or photos to create a floral painting on top. Blending these two techniques creates a lively, mixed-media painting, using acrylic paint and collage. This class is for you if you'd love to loosen up in your artwork, if you feel stuck and need a little encouragement, or even if you're new to all of this and just want to enjoy expressing yourself and learning. All supplies provided. Cost is $50-75 depending on the size of canvas you choose, either 11x14 or 16x20.

Last, but not least, from Sheila: "I am also hosting an Open Studio Event at my studio. The dates for this are October 2, 4-8pm and October 3, 10am-5pm. Come hang out at my brand new studio! Built with a little shed as the base, my Dad and brothers fixed up the inside for me. They installed electricity and turned the interior into a beautiful little space: come check it out, enjoy my current collection of whimsical, colorful artwork. Bring a friend and meet new art enthusiasts. Take your time, chill, and just enjoy the beauty."

Plein Air Painting: April through October, the Mountain Valley Plein Air Painters spend their Tuesday mornings painting outdoors. This offshoot of the Alliance is a casual group: an email goes out every weekend with directions to that week's location. There's no attendance taken, no need to even say if you're coming. Locations include farms, orchards, gardens and state parks throughout Franklin, and sometimes, Adams and Fulton counties. If you're interested, email Anne at ahf53@comcast.net .
